

Steve Field
PADI #385463
MSDT Instructor

Steve Field is a PADI Master Scuba Diver Trainer who has been an avid diver for the past 10 years.

In addition to diving and teaching recreational scuba, Steve is also a former public safety diver and graduate of the Dive Rescue International Public Safety Scuba Instructor course which is considered to be one of the most physically and mentally challenging diving courses outside of the military.

Steve loves to be underwater and has an absolute passion for making great divers and developing long lasting friendships with his students.
